Session 1: Director's Camp (Limited to 10 students)

June 2-6 Ages: 8-12 NEW!
Member: $950 Non-Member: $990
(proceeds benefit the Center for Environmental Education)

This rare opportunity allows only 10 students to spend the week with Selby's Education Director, Donna Krabill, for an incredible week in the Gardens. Students will receive hands-on experiences in research and horticulture, work with the poison dart frogs, and get involved in great creative projects. Meet special guests and enjoy this highly personalized educational experience. Don't tell the kids, but FCAT science standards are imbedded in this immersion experience.

Session 2: Art of Nature

June 9-13, 2008 Ages 6-11
Member $200 Non-Member $215

Children will create a portfolio of wonderful pieces inspired by nature including nature printing, natural sculptures, wreaths, painting and other great arts and craft activities.

Session 3: GREEN Kids

June 16-20, 2008 Ages 6-11 NEW!
Member $200 Non-Member $215

Turn your kids GREEN and they will be the envy of the neighborhood with the new skills and knowledge they will develop through fun activities, games and projects during this week of GREEN fun! They can even participate in a coastal clean-up along our bayfront. Topics include gardening, water, energy, recycling, composting and much more!

Session 4: Planet of Plants

June 23 -27, 2008 Ages 6-11 NEW!
Member $200 Non-Member $215

Travel the world at Selby Gardens to explore some crazy plants from around the globe. Kids will examine orchids, carnivorous plants and other really cool plants to gain a better understanding of the important role of plants to the planet. Students will use microscopes and plant presses, visit the greenhouses and research center, use the potting bench, and get good and dirty!

Session 5: Writer's Workshop

June 30-July 3, 2008 (4 days only)
Ages 8-11 NEW!

Limited to 15 students per class.
Member $200 Non-Member $215

Using the Gardens as inspiration, campers will practice descriptive writing, creating poetry and short stories. Students will also illustrate their work through various forms of media.
